

2nd Annual COHT Northeast Gathering

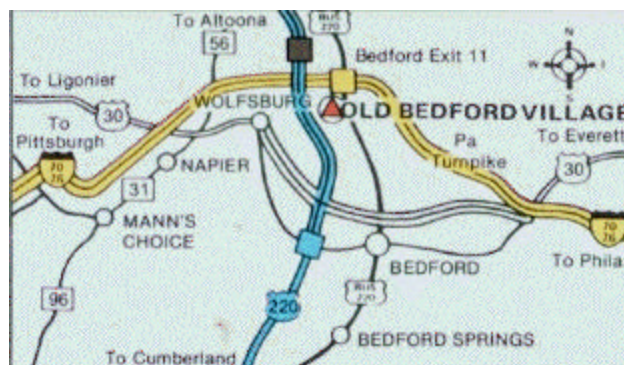

at
Old Bedford Village, Bedford PA.
October 3,4, & 5 2003
Hosted by the Pennsylvania Chapter COHT

If you want to know what "Trekking" is all about, come join us for a great weekend of leaning and sharing of ideas. All skill levels are welcome! Just starting out? Great! This is a great opportunity to get ideas on clothing, firelocks, food, trekking gear, and woodcraft from others in the hobby. A true Diehard? You too can pitch in and help the people looking to become a trekker. Members of the COHT come and meet other members from other states whom you only know by email. Non-members interested in trekking are welcome as well. Period clothing is optional. Bring what you have or come if you don't have any. This event is to see what it's all about. Camping space available on site and there are Hotels in the area.

Sutlers are always welcome. Old Bedford Village is asking a $30.00 fee for Sutlers. Camping is on site if you wish and there are Hotels in the area. Please make sure your wares are 1840 or earlier in time frame. The PA COHT will give you free advertising in the states newsletter and a link on our website for attending.

Registration is required and the only cost to you is $25.00 per person. $12.00 for kids 12 and under. This covers the entire weekend (seminars, wood, water, & restroom facilities) and the Saturday evening meal. If you attended last year you know how great the food is!. Registration on back Cooking done on site by Jean Gartner.

Old Bedford Village is located 1 mile from the Bedford Exit on the Pa. Turnpike I-76. Their website is www.oldbedfordvillage.org or Old Bedford Village, 220 Sawblade Rd., Bedford PA 15522 Telephone 1-800-238-4347
